PURPOSE AND SCOPE OF EXAMINATION

Under authorization of the Financial Services Commission, Office of Insurance Regulation (Office), Market Investigations, pursuant to Section 624.3161, Florida Statutes, a target market conduct examination of American Fidelity Assurance Company (Company) was performed by Examination Resources, LLC., the contract examiner for the Office. The scope of this examination was January 1, 2006 through September 30, 2007. The examination began January 14, 2008 and ended on January 14, 2008.

The purpose of this examination was to verify the Company's compliance with the Freedom to Travel Act; Section 626.9541(1)(dd), Florida Statutes. The examination included the following procedures:

- Review of the Company's procedures regarding declining, limiting, or canceling policies based on the applicant's or insured's past or future lawful travel plans outside the United States.
- Review of all applications denied or issued in a manner different than applied for during the exam period to verify the Company is complying with the Freedom to Travel Act, Section 626.9541(1)(dd), Florida Statutes and Rule 69O-125.003, Florida Administrative Code.

This Final Report is based upon information from the examiner's draft report, additional research conducted by the Office, and additional information provided by the Company. Procedures and conduct of the examination were in accordance with the Market Regulation Handbook produced by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners.

FOREIGN TRAVEL PROCEDURES REVIEW

Company Procedures Review

The Company used an application that did ask the question, if the insured intended to travel or reside outside the United States or Canada except for vacation trips, during our examination scope. The Company stated that the application is not currently being used. Our review revealed one application that included the foreign travel related question.

Policy Review

There were 169 life applications received during the examination period, of which fifty (50) applications were issued in a manner different than applied for, denied, refused by applicant, or canceled.

All fifty (50) applications issued in a manner different than applied for, denied, refused by applicant, or canceled were reviewed to determine that the Company was in compliance with the Freedom to Travel Act; Section 626.9541(1)(dd), Florida Statutes and Rule 690-125.003, Florida Administrative Code.

The examiner determined that none of the applications reviewed were declined, refused to continue, or limited based on the applicant's past or future lawful travel plans.
