PURPOSE AND SCOPE OF EXAMINATION

Under authorization of the Financial Services Commission, Office of Insurance Regulation (Office), Market Investigations, pursuant to Section 624.3161, Florida Statutes, a target market conduct examination of Gerber Life Insurance Company (Company) was performed by Examination Resources, LLC., the contract examiner for the Office. The scope of this examination was July 01, 2006 through September 30, 2007. The examination began October 21, 2007 and ended on November 15, 2007.

The purpose of this examination was to verify the Company's compliance with the Freedom to Travel Act; Section 626.9541(1)(dd), Florida Statutes and Rule 69O-125.003, Florida Administrative Code. The examination included the following procedures:

- Review of the Company's procedures regarding declining, limiting, or canceling policies based on the applicant's or insured's past or future lawful travel plans outside the United States.
- Review of all applications denied or issued in a manner different than applied for during the exam period to verify the Company is complying with the Freedom to Travel Act; Section 626.9541(1)(dd), Florida Statutes and Rule 69O-125.003, Florida Administrative Code.

This Final Report is based upon information from the examiner's draft report, additional research conducted by the Office, and additional information provided by the Company. Procedures and conduct of the examination were in accordance with the Market Regulation Handbook produced by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners.
