

INFORMATIONAL MEMORANDUM

OIR-04-018M

ISSUED

November 17, 2004

Florida Office of Insurance Regulation

Kevin McCarty, Commissioner

To All Property and Casualty Insurers in the State of Florida

Monthly QUASR Reporting

Pursuant to Emergency Order 78062-04-CO, all Property and Casualty Insurers are required to report to the Office the Quarterly Supplemental Report ("QUASR"), as required by Section 624.424(10), Florida Statutes, and Rule 69O-137.009, Florida Administrative Code, by the last day of each month beginning on September 30, 2004, to June 30, 2005.

The purpose of this Memorandum is to issue clarification of the aforementioned Emergency Order and also extend the reporting period. This information shall be reported to the Office by the twenty-fifth day of each month for the immediately preceding month-end. This requirement shall begin with the October report due on November 25, 2004 and shall continue through December 2005. The report for December 2005 will be due on January 25, 2006.

The Internet application for reporting this data is now able to receive this information on a monthly basis. The website address for this application is <https://portal.fldfs.com/QUASR/Default.asp>.

The statutorily required QUASR submissions shall continue to be filed in accordance with existing law. Reports for the months of March, June, September, and December shall be submitted on both a monthly and quarterly basis.

If you have any questions regarding the monthly reporting, please contact the Bureau of Property and Casualty Insurer Solvency at (850) 413-5232.
