Kevin M. McCarty
Commissioner
Office of Insurance Regulation
State of Florida
Tallahassee, Florida 32399-0326

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to your instructions, in compliance with Section 624.316, Florida Statutes, and in accordance with the practices and procedures promulgated by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC), we have conducted an examination as of December 31, 2005, of the financial condition and corporate affairs of:

TOWER HILL SELECT INSURANCE COMPANY
7201 N.W. 11th Place
Gainesville, Florida 32605

Hereinafter referred to as, the "Company". Such report of examination is herewith respectfully submitted.

SCOPE OF EXAMINATION

This examination covered the Company inception period of June 24, 2004 through December 31, 2005. This was a first year exam. This examination commenced with planning at the Office, on April 3, 2006, to April 5, 2006. The fieldwork commenced on April 10, 2006 and was concluded on September 20, 2006. The examination included any material transactions and/or events occurring subsequent to the examination date and noted during the course of the examination.

This financial examination was a statutory financial examination conducted in accordance with the Financial Condition Examiners Handbook, Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual and annual statement instructions promulgated by the NAIC as adopted by Rules 69O-137.001(4) and 69O-138.001, Florida Administrative Code, with due regard to the statutory requirements of the insurance laws and rules of the State of Florida.

In this examination, emphasis was directed to the quality, value and integrity of the statement assets and the determination of liabilities, as those balances affect the financial solvency of the Company.

The examination included a review of the corporate records and other selected records deemed pertinent to the Company's operations and practices. In addition, the NAIC IRIS ratio report, the A.M. Best Report, the Company's independent audit reports and certain work papers prepared by the Company's independent certified public accountant (CPA) were reviewed and utilized where applicable within the scope of this examination.

We valued and/or verified the amounts of the Company's assets and liabilities as reported by the Company in its annual statement as of December 31, 2005. Transactions subsequent to year-end 2005 were reviewed where relevant and deemed significant to the Company's financial condition.

This report of examination is confined to financial statements and comments on matters that involve departures from laws, regulations or rules, or which are deemed to require special explanation or description.

The Company's Board appointed an Audit Committee in accordance with Section 607.0825, Florida Statutes, as follows:

Audit Committee

Phillip Martin Thomasson, Chairman

Donald Carl Matz, Jr.

William John Shively

Conflict of Interest Procedure

The Company adopted a policy statement requiring annual disclosure of conflicts of interest, in accordance with Section 607.0832, Florida Statutes. No exceptions were noted during this examination period.

Corporate Records

The recorded minutes of the shareholders, Board of Directors and Audit Committee meeting were reviewed for the period under examination. The recorded minutes of the Board adequately documented its meetings and approval of Company transactions in accordance with Section 607.1601, Florida Statutes.

The minutes of the Board of Directors recorded that the Board established an Audit Committee as provided by Section 624.424(8)(c), Florida Statutes, and approved the Company's investments as required by Section 625.304, Florida Statutes.

Acquisitions, Mergers, Disposals, Dissolutions, and Purchase or Sales through Reinsurance

There were no acquisitions, mergers, disposals, dissolutions, and purchase or sales through reinsurance during the period under examination.

Surplus Debentures

As of December 31, 2005, there were no outstanding surplus debentures of the Company.

AFFILIATED COMPANIES

The Company was a member of an insurance holding company system as defined by Rule 69O-143.045(3), Florida Administrative Code. The latest holding company registration statement was filed with the State of Florida on October 11, 2005, as required by Section 628.801, Florida Statutes, and Rule 69O-143.046, Florida Administrative Code.

An organizational chart as of December 31, 2005, reflecting the holding company system, is shown below. Schedule Y of the Company's 2005 annual statement provided a list of all related companies of the holding company group.

ORGANIZATIONAL CHART
DECEMBER 31, 2005

FIDELITY BOND

The Company maintained fidelity bond coverage of $3,100,000 with a $50,000 deductible per occurrence. The Company was a named insured on the fidelity bond and included all companies owned by William J. Shively. Considering the financial information of all companies, this policy adequately covered the $1,000,000 suggested minimum amount of coverage for the Company recommended by the NAIC.

PENSION, STOCK OWNERSHIP AND INSURANCE PLANS

The Company had no employees and therefore had no pension, stock ownership or insurance plans.

STATUTORY DEPOSITS

The following securities were deposited with the State of Florida as required by Section 624.411, Florida Statutes:

State	Description	Par Value	Market Value
FL	Cash	$ 300,654	$ 300,654
TOTAL FLORIDA DEPOSITS		$ 300,654	$ 300,654

INSURANCE PRODUCTS AND RELATED PRACTICES

Territory

The Company was licensed to transact insurance coverage in the State of Florida only and had no plans to approach insurance markets in other states at this time.

Treatment of Policyholders

The Company established procedures for handling written complaints and maintained a record of all complaints received in accordance with Section 626.9541(1) (j), Florida Statutes.

The claims services company, Tower Hill Claims Services, Inc., maintained a claims procedure manual that included detailed procedures for handling both property and liability claims.

REINSURANCE

The reinsurance agreements reviewed complied with NAIC standards with respect to the standard insolvency clause, arbitration clause, transfer of risk, reporting and settlement information deadlines.

Assumed

The Company had no assumed business during the exam period.

Ceded

The Company ceded risk on both a quota share and an excess basis. The cash flow analysis performed on the quota share agreement indicated that there was a transfer of risk within the terms of the reinsurance contract.

The reinsurance contracts were reviewed by the Company's appointed actuary and were utilized in determining the ultimate loss opinion.

ACCOUNTS AND RECORDS

KPMG, an independent CPA firm, audited the Company's statutory basis financial statements annually for all years under review, in accordance with Section 624.424(8), Florida Statutes. Supporting work papers were prepared by the CPA as required by Rule 69O-137.002, Florida Administrative Code.

The Company's accounting records were maintained on a computerized system. The Company's balance sheet accounts were verified with the line items of the annual statement submitted to the Office.

The Company maintained its principal operational offices in Gainesville, Florida, where this examination was conducted.

The following agreements were in effect between the Company and its affiliates as of December 31, 2005:

Managing General Agency Agreement

The managing general agency (MGA) agreement was with Tower Hill Insurance Group, Inc. (THIG). The agreement included the management and direct oversight of the production of business for the underwriting and policy administration functions. Additionally, THIG facilitated the payment of claims and other various accounting, reporting and administrative functions.

Claims Services Agreement

The claims services agreement was with Tower Hill Claims Service, Inc. (THCS). The agreement included the management, adjustment, payment requests and other various claims administrative duties as necessary, other than those services administered by the MGA.

Managing Services Agreement

The management services agreement was with THH. The agreement included the coordination of the activities of the Company, development of corporate plans, legal counsel, executive management, internal auditing management, contract negotiation/approval and other such services as deemed necessary.

Tax Sharing Agreement

The Company, along with its parent, THH, filed a consolidated federal income tax return. The Company was party to a consolidated tax agreement which met the requirements of SSAP No. 10. The tax amount paid by the Company to the parent shall be equal to the amount the Company would have paid had the Company filed an independent tax return. Tax payments by the Company were made to the parent.

The Company and non-affiliates had the following agreement in effect as of December 31, 2005:

Custodial Agreement

The Company had a custodial agreement with Wachovia Bank which contained all necessary elements required in Rule 69O-143.042(2), Florida Administrative Code.

Risk-Based Capital

Risk-based capital was reported by the Company at an adequate level.
