

Virtual Rate Hearing Instructions

First Community Insurance Company
Public Rate Hearing
Tuesday, September 22, 2020
9:00 AM

The Florida Office of Insurance Regulation (OIR) is conducting a virtual rate hearing to receive testimony and public comments from First Community Insurance Company regarding their proposed rate changes to the homeowners' multi-peril line of business. To accommodate on social distancing guidelines and safety protocols, the rate hearings will be held virtually.

The purpose of the public hearing is to discuss the companies' proposed rate changes for its homeowners' multi-peril business. This rate hearing will be recorded and posted to the OIR website.

Company Name	Filing Log #	Overall Proposed Rate Change
First Community Insurance Company	20-016726	24.1%

Participation

Participants can register in advance to view the hearings and/or provide public comment. Upon registration, participants will receive a confirmation email containing a link to access the hearings.

Register for the hearings here <https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/9128210814009627918>.

Participants may also access the rate hearings in listen only mode by phone at 1 (877) 309-2071; Access Code 452-216-356.

Public Comments/Testimony

Participants will be given an opportunity to speak during the public comment portion of the hearing. Participants who wish to speak will need to register in advance for the hearing.

The record will be open for public comment until 5:00 p.m. ET on October 6, 2020. Please send public comments to the OIR at ratehearings@flair.com with "First Community Insurance Company" in the subject line of the email.

Under Florida law, written communications to the OIR are public record and subject to disclosure, including being available to the public and media. To learn more, visit the OIR's Internet Privacy Policy.