PURPOSE AND SCOPE OF EXAMINATION

Under authorization of the Financial Services Commission, Office of Insurance Regulation (Office), Market Investigations, pursuant to Section 624.3161, Florida Statutes, a target market conduct examination of Transamerica Occidental Life Insurance Company (Company) was performed by Examination Resources, LLC., the contract examiner for the Office. The scope of this examination was July 1, 2006 through September 30, 2007. The examination began December 17, 2007 and ended on January 11, 2008.

The purpose of this examination was to verify the Company's compliance with the Freedom to Travel Act; Section 626.9541(1)(dd), Florida Statutes and Rule 69O-125.003, Florida Administrative Code. The examination included the following procedures:

- Review of the Company's procedures regarding declining, limiting, or canceling policies based on the applicant's or insured's past or future lawful travel plans outside the United States.
- Review of all applications denied or issued in a manner different than applied for during the exam period to verify the Company is complying with the Freedom to Travel Act; Section 626.9541(1)(dd), Florida Statutes and Rule 69O-125.003, Florida Administrative Code.

This Final Report is based upon information from the examiner's draft report, additional research conducted by the Office, and additional information provided by the Company. Procedures and conduct of the examination were in accordance with the Market Regulation Handbook produced by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners.

FOREIGN TRAVEL PROCEDURES REVIEW

Company Procedures Review

In response to the Freedom to Travel Act, the Company did not remove the foreign travel questions from the life applications. The question was left on the application for actuarial data gathering for use in the rating structure for the life insurance rates.

The Company's procedure manual regarding foreign travel encompasses all states, with a disclaimer for Florida stating that the Company may not decline, rate up or deny preferred risk class because of lawful foreign travel.

Policy Review

There were 5,008 life applications received during the examination period, of which 1,667 applications were issued in a manner different than applied for, denied, refused by applicant, or canceled.

All 1,667 applications issued in a manner different than applied for, denied, refused by applicant, or canceled were reviewed to determine that the Company was in compliance with the Freedom to Travel Act; Section 626.9541(1)(dd), Florida Statutes and Rule 69O-125.003, Florida Administrative Code.

The examiner determined that none of the applications reviewed were declined, refused to continue, or limited based on the applicant's past or future lawful travel plans.
